

Sponge, Wake Up Call

i must admit i hate the mornings i wish that they had never invented it and skipped straight to the evenin bit it would make much more sense cos nothin ever happens in the morning u sit around-it can get quite boring for some and u never get anythin done cos ur feelin too bad i wanna share with u a little problem i have trouble gettin out of bed i'd rather just sleep instead oh god i hate mornings

i have to have at least a cup of coffee if i havent dont bother talkin to me infact make that 2 or 3 before u try to approach me when i do wake up its never worth it cold pizza, beer and fag butts by the bed there's a battle goin on in your head mornin's so over-rated

i have to have at least a cup of coffee
before u try to approach me

what i wanna know what i gotta know is why the hell i got up out of bed when i could be layin in and sleepin instead
