SR-71, Everything

Does it really matter what I want Does it really matter how I feel Aren't you gonna do what you want Why would you ask when you can steal

You take everything that I am You take everything from me

So this is what it feels like to be used So this is what it feels like to be lied to I don't think I could feel more let down I don't think I'll ever give a damn about you

You take everything that I am You take everything from me You take everything that I have Just take everything from me

You don't know what I'm capable of I won't let you limit me You don't care what I think If you cut me do I not bleed

You take everything that I am You take everything from me You take everything that I have Just take everything from me
