

Stabbing Westward, Dawn

--This one, as far as I know is their only non-lp song on a soundtrack
This is from the Escape From LA soundtrack --

My angel my reluctant whore
Decided you can take no more
So let's fuck until we fall asleep
Please don't wake me when you leave

Just kiss me before you go
Kiss me before you go
Kiss me before you go
Promise to kiss me before you go

Funeral but nobody's died
Dressed in black and black inside
In the morning you'll be gone
The stranger that I'll never know

So please kiss me before you go
Kiss me before you go
Kiss me before you go
Promise to kiss me before you go

It's too late now too fall asleep
So just lie here and watch you breathe
In the morning you'll be gone
Like everything I've ever loved

So just kiss me before you go
Kiss me before you go
Kiss me before you go

Before you go
Before you go
