

Stacey Earle, Good-By

When you left me last summer
You took everything
When you came back to me
You asked me everything about everything

You asked me if
There was somebody new
How could there be
My heart was with you

When you said, "good-by
I'm leaving you
Oh, good-by, I'm leaving you
Oh, yes, good-by, I'm leaving you, good-by"

So, why did you come back
Was it for the rest of me
I already told you
You would always get the best of me, there's nothin' left of me

Didn't leave me nothin'
I could use
Well, maybe the last words
I heard from you

Ain't nothin' gonna
Change my mind
I'm leaving your heart
But, takin' mine

Now, that's somethin'
I can use
Take my heart
Find someone new

I'm taking my heart now
And, let it slowly heal
Right now, my heart
Just don't know how to feel

But give it a little time
Someone to treat it kind
It needs to build some trust
My heart's been through so much

It just said, "good-by"
Oh, it just said, "good-by"
Oh, good-by
I'm leaving you, good-by"
