

Stacey Earle, Promise You Anything

No curtain on the window.
Outside the sun is sinking low.
I feel like letting go,
I will promise you anything.
Wind whisper in your ear.
I'll tell you what you want to hear.
If you'll only let me near,
I will promise you anything.

Well, I don't have to prove my intentions are golden.
I don't have to tell you where we're goin'.
Feel somethin' wild baby, out there blowin',
If you follow me.

Oh, run with me if you dare.
Hold on, gonna take you there
Solemn as a prayer,
I will promise you anything.

Instrumental break.

No, I don't have to prove my intentions are golden.
I don't have to tell you where we're goin'.
Feel somethin' wild baby, out there blowin',
If you follow me.

Oh, no curtain on the window.
Outside the moon, a-hangin' low
True colors start to show:
I will promise you anything.

I will promise you anything.

I will promise you anything.
