

Stacie Orrico, Everything

I said a prayer
That someday I would find a boy
And together we'd find joy
Maybe someday
And he would care
About the color of the sky
About the things that make me cry
Maybe someday
And if it happens this is what I'd say

(~Chorus~)

And I will give you my life
Together we'll make it right
And I will say to you
What is for sure
Let me tell you
That I will give you my world
And baby I'd be your girl
And I will say to you
Everything I have is yours

I wonder if
If maybe God has shown him
He is the one who's gonna marry me
Maybe someday
So I'm gonna wait
'Cause I'm worth waiting for
And what I'm worth is so much more
For that someday
And if it happens this is what I'd say

Chorus
