

Stacie Orrico, Genuine

i see you passing by i dont know where i dont know why
you chose to go the way that I shall go
you've been a friend of mine for many years
for anytime
you just arent you today so whats on your mind and you just wont speak about it think about it
be about it
gotta make yourself aware that you're gone astray your trying so hard to fit in

what ya need is something genuine
what ya want is something real what ya need is something truthful
i know ya do, i know ya do, i know ya do cuz i need it too
whatcha need whatcha need whatcha want whatcha want
o yea-is something genuine you cry yourself to sleep sleep at night

but once the night is gone and you prepare to face a brand new day you hide yourself behind your mastermind your in disguise
its as if your trying to put a mask on your pain and you dont know who you are what your about where are you now your becoming someone that you dont want to be
your trying so hard to fit in (trying so hard)

what ya need is somthing genuine
is something genuine

He loves you for who you are now and who you will be dont fear living in truth is reality i dont have all the answers but i know one who does and i know there's freedom in truth i go to Him because

genuine yea yea yea
i know u do, yea
what u need is something truthful genuine

what He has is something genuine
who He is someone real
what He gives is something truthful its what He has
and i need him too

i know what u need
something genuine
He is something genuine
