

Stacie Orrico, Restore My Soul

So stressed
No hope
Where do I go now
Seems like all of life's tests
Take me furthur from you
It amazes me
How you rescue me
From a world that moves so fast
So completly
You receive me
Into your arms at last

With a single prayer
You restore my soul
When life's not fair
I know where to go
To renew my strength
To keep goin' on
No, I'll never be alone
With a single prayer
You restore my soul

Lord You give me the strength
To know when I'm weak
And to seek Your guiding hand
When I get down on my knees
Piece by piece
You make me whole again

CHORUS
