

Stage, Flag

if i would die tomorrow and you were finally free i wouldn't feel a difference if you would die with me
'Cause i'm already sad and i'm already sad now that the war is gone and the bodies left to die a man looks up for his conutry with the flag in his eyes Oh, i know i'll find my direction home telling you all your secrets watch them all grow old nevermind the reasons or why they're ever told you my friend must die a man looks up for direction home oh, you loved the song of my direction home i know i'll find my direction home
