Staind, Everything Changes

If you just walked away What could I really say? Would it matter anyway? Would it change how you feel?

I am the mess you chose The closet you cannot close The devil in you, I suppose 'Cause the wounds never heal

But everything changes If I could turn back the years If you could learn to forgive me Then I could learn to feel

Sometimes the things I say In moments of disarray Succumbing to the games we play To make sure that it's real

But everything changes If I could turn back the years If you could learn to forgive me Then I could learn to feel

-Solo-

When it's just me and you Who knows what we could do If we can just make it through The toughest part of the day

But everything changes
If I could turn back the years
If you could learn to forgive me
Then I could learn to feel
Then we could stay here together
And we could conquer the world
If we could say that forever
Is more than just a word

If you just walked away
What could I really say?
Would it matter anyway?
It wouldn't change how you feel
