

Staind, Lowest In Me

Staind zapowiada utwór "Lowest In Me" (premiera 19 kwietnia 2023 r.).

Try to let go but you won't let me
So I'm closed off hating all I see
Play the victim so carelessly
You're addicted to uncertainty

You bring out the lowest that I have in me
I feel the chaos and the gravity
And I can't escape the bitterness I can't change
You bring out the lowest that I have
Lowest that I have in me

Try to hold back, all the anger
But it's a trigger and I can't relax
Losing focus on the things you lack
So you push me the brink
And I don't know what is next

You bring out the lowest that I have in me
I feel the chaos and the gravity
And I can't escape the bitterness I can't change
You bring out the lowest that I have
Lowest that I have in me

Lowest of the low
I'm so fucking high

Sever all ties
I don't recognize what I've become
Thread is pulled
You've made an animal

You bring out the lowest that I have in me
I feel the chaos and the gravity
And I can't escape the bitterness I can't change
You bring out the lowest that I have
Lowest that I have in me
