

Stampedeers, Carry Me

Mmm-mmm Mmm-mmm

Carry me
Home to Birmingham
To my Sarah-Ann
To where I grew a man

Mmm-mmm carry me
Away from this old war
I don't wanna fight no more
I just wish it would end
Mmm-mmm

(CHORUS)
Here I'm tied down and homesick
And that old wind just blows so freely
Why can't it take me along

Mmm-mmm carry me
With you ramblin' wind
It's the place you've been
I wish I was home again

Mmm-mmm Mmm-mmm

(BREAK:) (humming on top)

(CHORUS)
Here I'm tied down and homesick
And that old wind just blows so freely
Why can't it take me along

Mmm-mmm carry me
Home to Alabam
To Sarah's homemade jam
To old red mountain land

Mmm-mmm carry me
With you ramblin' wind
It's the place you've been
I wish I was home again
