Stanfour, It

When you were all there
I was loving being nowhere
My inside, outside
Kept on looking for a new high
But now that storm has gone
I know its never coming back
You know me
Cuz it feels like
Youve gotta be in my life
And it feels like
Nobody knows the truth
Only me and you
Its not over
Back then, i would
Try to get with everyone that i could
Youve chained me, im caught
Gave me everything that youve got
The situation changed
Im just a player in your game
You know this
Cuz it feels like
Youve gotta be in my life
And it feels like
Nobody knows the truth
Only me and you
Its not over
I dont want us to break down
Cuz all the people are so loud
Im just hoping were strong enough to make it
Cuz it feels like
Youve gotta be in my life
And it feels like
Nobody knows the truth
Only me and you
Its not over
Its not over
Cuz it feels like
Nobody knows the truth
Only me and you
Its not over
Its not over
