

Star Salzman, Dreams Come True

It's time to stop running from all the things that make the world so glum

Lets make our dreams come true
It's up to me and it may be up to you

WELL

I traveled for too much time to see you spend one more dime
on stupid strategy guides
when the answer wasn't inside

Just figure it out you dummy
then you wont have to spend 9.99

You can always stop and take a breath
When the game is just too hard for you You'll never ever have to fear your death When I'm with you remember it's not the end of the world when you lose all your continues you can start all over again

It's time to stop running It's time to make our dreams come true
It's time to get started I'll be player one and you be player two

I traveled for too much time
to see you spend one more dime
on stupid strategy guides
when the answer wasn't inside

then you wont have to spend 9.99

then you wont have to spend 9.99
