

Stardog Champion, Bone China

In the morning
She gone crazy
With a painted picture
Her father's story
Bone China - my friends
Bone China - let the summer come again
She be dancing by the moonlit sky
I'm talkin' to you
She be drinking all my early times
She be movin' like a butterfly
I'm just waiting on that dream - because the fast ones always ride for free
Ugly morning - she's a Jezebel's daughter
She's like a Brunnhilda
A child of the water
Bone China - my friends
Bone China - let the summer come again
She be dancing in the moonlit sky
She be moving like a butterfly
She be shaking like a girl from shine
She be moving like 'a, high fallotin(?), like a
I'm just waiting on that dream - cause the fast one
The fast ones - always ride for free
