

Starfield, Everything To Me

Worn out, wasted
Like a bird with broken wings
Sometimes grace reminds me
I don't get to be the king

But love, it washes over
Love, it pulls me closer
Love, it changes everything

So everything is beautiful
Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe
Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful to me

Sweetly, You release me
From the weight of what I've done
The trigger trips the hammer
But the bullets never come

And love, it washes over
Love is flowing closer
Love, it changes everything

So everything is beautiful
Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe
Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful to me

Love, like a landslide, like the wind
Spins around and me pulls me in
At it's unveiling I begin

Everything is beautiful
Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe
Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful
Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe
Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful to me
