

Starfield, Hiding Place

In the shadows, I can hear Your voice,
Singing to me
In the valley, I can hear Your heart,
Reaching for me now
And I wait flooded with your strength of Your peace
You're my defender, the shield of my heart
You are my hiding place
When terror surrounds me, You keep me from harm
You are my hiding place
In the darkness, I can feel Your light,
Wrap around me
In my suffering, I can feel Your joy,
Rising in me now
And I wait, flooded with the strength of Your peace
Here before You, Jesus
In this place,
Here before You now,
Face to face,
Under the shelter of the Most High
Will I be saved, and will I abide
