

Staring Back, Seasick While Standing

You always wanted songs of celebration
On how to cease the day
But you'd never think that
I'd be coming your way

List of my demands:
I don't want to make you sad
For the sake of both of us I'll stand
This time I can

Leave me out this time
You might fall down this time
You know and I might even find you
You can't give me what's mine
I need this for myself
And right now you're not helping
So know we're through

I know it's not what I say that matters
It's what I do
So what does that say when
I'd do anything for you
Well I guess we're back to square one
Feels like it always ends this way

One moment you praise my patience
The next I'm too slow
And you said you'd let me know

You might fall down this time
You know and I might even find you
You cant give me what's mine
I need this for myself
And right now you're not helping
So know we're through

Know we're...

Leave me out this time
Leave me out this time
Leave me out this time
Leave me
