

Starmaker, You (Picture Of Life)

It is hard to believe that you were that person Whom I thought could be the love of my life You could have gotten my heart, my soul, my inspiration but you closed your heart from my love now after all these years I saw you again you looked at me but I turned my head for all those tears that i've shed chorus 2x

you ya did not love me
you
ya did not care
and now
I live my own life without you being there

I didn't fit in your picture, the picture you had of life I used to be one of your toys Ya laughed about with the boys you used to be my everything you used to be my world

I've found out
That my heart, and my soul, and my inspiration are mine and only mine to keep

chorus 3x

I figured out about my own picture and there's no room for you so goodbye to you too
