

Stars, Window Bird

Stuck on the wall
The note that you left
I wait
And stop for the moment

Your reckless heart
You know you got it
Into the past
I try to sort it
Sort it
Out of the fog
You're calling my name
I wanted to call
Just for nothing

Your careless heart
You know you got it
Crawl into bed
And try to forget
Forget

When we go down
We lost the courage
When we go down
You're so ferocious
When we go down
We lost the courage
When we go down
You're so ferocious

Blanket of cloud
The sky hovering
Winter is long and forgiving

You melt your doubt and fall into me
I find your mouth and try to hold it
Hold it

You bring your love
You know its homeless
But we'll both rise
We're falling

The summer arrives
The garden's alive
The mud and the mortar
We're gonna save it
Save it

When we go down
Lost the courage
When we go down
You're so ferocious
