

Statistics, A Number, Not A Name

Please return this to sender,
I can't really say that I'm in.
Don't call back, no don't bother,
I wont pick up the phone again.

And I've listened to you,
And you've spoken true.
When all is said and done,
Find another one.

Please wait sir, things get better;
Just hear what we've got in store.
If you give me a moment,
I could describe it to you some more.

And I've listened to you,
And you spoke untrue.
When all's said and done,
Find another one.

You're a point, in this argument,
You're a number, not a name.
You're a point, in this argument,
You're a number, not a name.

You're a point, in this argument,
You're a number, not a name.
You're a point, in this argument,
You're a number, not a name.
