

Status Quo, Do It Again

(Edwards / Bown)

If you ever found anything better than working
You'd want to do it again
Like flying a plane or nude body surfing
You'd want to do it again
That Casanova, he had it right
He'd just do it again
He'd do it again all day and all night
Then he'd do it again

You're gonna drink too much, say never no more
But you're gonna do it again
Trust me, I'm a doctor, I know for sure
You're gonna do it again

Do it again, do it again
If you all like it do it again
Do it again, do it again
If it hits you right just do it again

Me, I get time off, I twiddle my thumbs
Cos I want to do it again
I get a rush every night when 8.45 comes
Can't wait to do it again
There is a price to pay, it ain't cheap
If you want to do it again
Well, I sold my soul, yeah I'm in deep
Might as well do it again

Life is short, never complain
You could be hit by a truck, fall under a train
Enjoying yourself is the name of the game
Got to go back tonight and do it again

That Mona Lisa, now she could smile
And do it again
She'd sit and grin for quite a while
Then she'd do it again
You is here, then you ain't, that was never in doubt
Better do it again
Daon't take no Einstein to work it out
So do it again

Do it again, do it again
If you all like it do it again
Do it again, do it again
If it hits you right just do it again
Do it again, do it again
If you all like it do it again
Do it again, do it again
If it hits you right just do it again
