

Status Quo, Not At All

(Rossi/Frost)

Might say yes, might say no
It's like watching the river flow
Might be shallow, may be deep
I won't lose any sleep, no, oh no

Not at all will I take a fall for you
Not at all 'cos you want it all
And you try it on like a sad old song
Don't you think it's wrong
How you carry on and on?

I won't worry, I won't fret
Are you really that lonely yet?
If you listen, what you hear
Is it somebody saying so, oh no

Not at all will I take a fall for you
Not at all 'cos you want it all
And you try it on like a sad old song
Don't you think it's wrong
How you carry on and on?

Not at all will I take a fall for you
Not at all 'cos you want it all
And you try it on like a sad old song
Don't you think it's wrong
How you carry on?
Not at all will I take a fall for you
Not at all 'cos you want it all
And you try it on like a sad old song
Don't you think it's wrong
How you carry on?
Not at all
