

Status Quo, Tune To The Music

(Rossi/Young)

Excuse me crying
Can't you hear what I'm saying
I guess I'm going
Going on my way.
I know there's something
Something's going wrong now
There's no tune to the music

My eyes are burning
Can't anybody hear me
My head is turning
I need somebody near me
But since you wonder
Everything is so wrong
There's tune to the music

The sounds are ringing
The emptiness is all mine.
Nobody bringing
The thing to make me feel fine
I know there's something
Something's going wrong now
There's no tune to the music
No words to my song
