

Steamhammer, On Your Road

I spoke in the mornin', had a hum on the wires
Something was burnin' and I tried hard to find my fire
Travelled a soft road, travelled a lost road
Wanna be on your own, wanna be on your own

Down in some valley the mist was alive
She held out a candle but it started to blind my eyes
Travelled a lost road, I travelled a soft road
Wanna be on your own, wanna be on your own
