

Steel Attack, Thunder Knight

Crossing the seven seas so far away from home
Mighty warriors your future has been told
I have talked with the angels
I have seen the future in my vision
It's time for you to regain the Holy Land again

Thunder Knight
Raise your sword
Oh, Thunder Knight
When the time has come for you

Thunder and lightning are holding the truth
The light will show you the right way through the dark
Behind the walls of deliverance
Now meet the enemy without any fear
It's time for you to regain the Holy Land again

Thunder Knight
use your sword
Oh, Thunder Knight

Within the heart of every man
There will be a time of wonder
Holy soldiers fall on your knees
Lightning and shadows, such a beauty
Now the time has come
Now you all shall burn

THUNDER KNIGHT...

Now you'll burn with me!
