

Steel Dragon, Wasted Generation

A runaway was found today
Dyin' in the alley
He didn't have a name, a number or a home
They found him cold as ice
He was feelin' no pain

His destination was termination
A dead end situation

We are the wasted generation
We are the wasted generation

A teenage idol died tonight
Lyn' in the gutter
He had the things in life
Only money could buy
He threw it all away down a river of fame

His destination was termination
A dead end situation

We are the wasted generation
We are the wasted generation

We are the wasted generation
We are the wasted generation
We are the wasted generation
We are the wasted generation
