

Stefan Andersson, Mona Lisa

It's by our failures that we progress on down through history Isn't it crazy
some inventive mothers were glorified through luck

It was a failure
out of an absent mind down by the Chateau Fizz that made it bubble
in his bottle of wine Sweet Lord I'm hooked

Mona-Lisa was probably one Just a slip of the pencil and her glory had come The smile she's wearing it ain't nothing but a wrong
Just a slip of the pencil
and her song was sung

It was a failure
made by a Chinese man down by the carry out that made his powder-keg turn into fireworks
when he stubbed out his fag

It was a pleasure
found by the one who popped popcorn to our world He didn't mean to but that's the way it goes
