

Stefan Eicher, Easy

Easy easy you came
much too easy too easy to stay
so easy easy you came like a birthday too easy to stay

And easy it falls
all around you
you waste it when you walk you waste it when you talk

Give it away
give it all away
as long as you got some as long you may

So senseless when you got it out of reach
when it's gone

Easy easy you came
much too easy
too easy to stay
so easy easy you came

Like a birthday
too easy to stay
the candle will show
you the way

But not its light
no. Not it's light

It's not what shines
that shows you the way it's the melting that's the price you've got to pay so easy when you got it
out of reach
when its gone

like a birthday too easy to stay
