

Stellar*, All It Takes

i'm in control of nothing i'm looking out for something on and on and ordinary a need to satisfy held in check all my emotions i don't want to keep it in i wanna feel alive

Chorus:
all it takes is a breath away all it takes is the will to sacrifice all it takes i'm looking out for someone whos not afraid of anyone everybody needs a conscience how far can we all go pull apart or come together use my affection until theres nothing left to show

Chorus

one more way to wind up hollow (all it takes) one more way to pay the price (all it takes)
