

Stellar Kart, Eyes

My vision is cloudy
It's all gone gray
I'm searching for sunshine
In pouring rain
All this world can offer
I'll leave behind
I've had enough of being blind
Open my eyes
I wanna see what you see
Beyond these beautiful lies
Open my eyes
To find what lasts forever
Look to the soul that's inside
Open my eyes
So focus my sight
To see right through
These walls that have kept me
From seeing truth
Forgive me for all my unbelief
And give me faith in things unseen
Heal me from my blindness
Take away this darkness
Show me the light
