

Stellar*, Magic Line

Chorus:

There's a longing in the blood
And you just can't get enough
It's better to be someplace
Than sorry
There's a rhythm in the room
Repetition in the tune
It's better to be someplace
Than sorry

Pray for the magic line
You're praying all the time
What you have will get you by
It's conditioned in the skin
And yes it does get in
So how do yo begin
You can't hold that against me
If there's something you can make
From the tiny steps you take
Then use it in any way
You think you like the sound
But my diction isn't round
Improve it
You can't hold that against me

Chorus

There's a kid in everyone
But some are better at having fun
Do you like the way it's done
Pray for the magic line
You're on your knees more than half the time
That's dedication
You can't hold that against me

Chorus

I have no bad intentions
At least none that I can mention
Do your worst then begin again
Make the time to enjoy
If I'm winning
You can't hold that against me
