

Stellar*, Nerve & Consequences

I get nervous at the thought of Falling flat on my face
Just be patient I'll be famous for Repeating mistakes

But I'll never play your favourite
Even if you demand it
I'm sure it's just a phase and I'll
Get over it
I will get over it

Second guessing every
Meaning of every word you
Might say
Hope to catch at any moment
Some message headed my Way

But I'll never play your favourite
Even if you demand it
I'm sure it's just a phase and I'll
Get over it
I will get over it

When will I learn to just play the Game?
When will I learn it's only a
Name?
Such a silly thing
