

Stellar*, Tenderhook

Lay your hand on me
Do you know how that feels?
Playing on my skin
You make a lifeline of it
Tender is the touch
You say it all for me
I'm strong enough but take it easy on Me

I'm strong enough but it's all too
Much
I'm drowning here

I shouldn't be the one
That has to tell you, baby
I shouldn't be the one
That has to tell you, baby
Being here with you
It really scares me
I shouldn't be the one
