

Stepa, Mountain

Today is the last day, the end of fasting
Eye candy is a mind fuck, but oh no more
This anticipation is drivin' me nuts
Something is gonna happen, some
Feel it pulse, watch it grow, it explodes when When's it my turn to explode?
Aha ha ha I feel the sonic sliding the pressure builds inside me
I am so happy I could, I am so happy I could Dreams that taste this good can't possibly come true
However now and then they find a way to
Today is tomorrow and I am happy
Something is gonna happen some
Today is the last day and I am through with it
Today is the last day and no more bullshit
