

Stephen Bishop, One More Night

(Stephen Bishop)

Everyone keeps telling me

I'm something I'm not

They fill me with questions that tear me apart

But through it all it was you who pulled me out

So please don't leave me now

Just give me one more night to hold you

One more night

Give me one more night to have you near

There's a man at the train stop with tears in his eyes

It reminds me of so long ago when I was able to cry

Now I'm strong

Slip away and laugh along with anyone who needs someone blue

CHORUS

What can I say to make you stay?

I'd do anything

I'd give everything to have just one more night...
