

Stephen Bishop, Parked Cars

(Stephen Bishop)

Every time she looks my way Heaven gets a little closer and every time I feel that way I wanna be with her

Love is surely like a rose
'til you find a thorn to hurt you
One thing she'll always know
My love is true

Parked Cars

sittin' in the back seat drivin' down on Main St.
stayin' out all night

Parked Cars

holding her so close wondering if she knows why I love her so...

When love is knockin' at your door
And the World is there up on your shoulder I'll show her then what love is for Tonight when I'm with her...

Parked Cars

turnin' off the headlights somewhere in the dark night talkin' to the moon

Parked Cars

with the radio down low playin' "Love Me Do" When Love is a lie
and she says goodbye Finds someone new Now your World is blue...

Parked Cars

somewhere down on Main St.
talkin' to the moon

Parked Cars

Wondering if she knows...
That every time she looks my way
Every time she smiles my Heart breaks
And all I really want to say is that my love is true Yes all I really want to say is that,
My love is true.....
