

Steps, Bittersweet

Bittersweet memories
That's all I'll take with me.
No matter what I know now I'll get by.
Hooooo

I watch the trees loose autumn leaves,
I see them blowing in the breeze,
Images falling through my mind.
Floating outside time.
Open the window feel the cold,
Snowflakes in silver and in gold,
And the light fades away into dark, like my heart.

Bittersweet memories
That's all I'll take with me,
No matter what I know now I'll get by.
Hooooo
Bittersweet when we meet,
That's how it's come to be,
'Coz I'm stronger now and I won't run and hide.
Hooooo

Now the same leaves are young and green,
So many colours fill my dreams,
And seeds of hope will bloom with love.
A promise of brighter days to come,
Rainbows are dancing, clear blue skies,
Waterfalls glisten in my eyes.
Every day the sun makes a new start,
Like my heart.

Bittersweet memories
That's all I'll take with me,
No matter what I know now I'll get by.
Hooooo
Bittersweet when we meet,
That's how its come to be,
'Coz I'm stronger now and I won't run and hide.
Hooooo

Now and then we can all lose our way,
Tomorrow's gonna bring a better day,
And I can see that finally you're free.
Ho ho ho ho
