

Stereo Kicks, Love Me So

Can we locate where we went wrong? It's driving me crazy, tiring daily
And though she tries her best to stay strong, I'm feeling so guilty, just wanna be guilt free

But if you save me now, you can brave the doubt & pull me out
'Cos darling I have been

Crying on my bedroom floor
Wishing I was still in your arms
There I always seemed so sure
That you love me, love me so
Hey, that you love me so, hey

Will love heal all this pain? Maybe the scars but, not a broken heart 'cos
A heart in pieces ain't the same, but remember I told you - you have the ability to save...

To save me now, and brave the doubt , if you can pull me out
'Cos darling I have been

Crying on my bedroom floor
Wishing I was still in your arms
There I always seemed so sure
That you love me, love me so
Hey, that you love me so, hey

I tried my best to understand what makes a man,
Is it the path where he began, or the one where he stands now?
