

Stereolab, Galaxidion

Let us be wise and resigned
Let us be sweet and obedient
Let us be fit and guided
Let us be wise and let us submit

How sweet it is to obey and to carry out happiness
Whilst being appropriately unburdened by wise and worthy guides
Relieved from the heavy burden of responsibility
Responsibility for our direction of our behaviour
Which won't be necessary before the social laws of nature
