

Stereomud, Sunlight

was something missing the walls were closing in and i tried to face them i tried to face my fears

[pre-chorus:]
it didn't matter to me
one more morning's missing

[chorus:]
cause I thought I'd never see it i thought I'd never see sunlight because I thought I'd never see it

as shadows close in the sound of silence screaming invisible nothing
invisible something's here

[pre-chorus]

[chorus]

i just prayed for light sunlight
sunlight

[chorus]

i said I thought I'd never see it sunlight (four times) i thought I'd never see it
