

Stereoside, Wasted

What ever happened to make you believe,
That you don't love me anymore
Was it something that I said
Maybe something I couldn't be...
That you just simply closed the door
Well I'm wasted and I'm never gonna feel again
And I've torn down and laid to waste everything that I am
Yeah
What ever happened to all those perfect dreams
That we had for so long
I guess you fell down and turned around
Well not again
No
When your wasted and I'm never gonna feel again
And I've torn down and laid to waste everything that I am
Yeah
Wasted and I'm never gonna feel again, no
And I've torn down and laid to waste everything that I am
Everything that I am
I hope I never ever have too bare the weight again
I just want you to know
That I'm wasted
Cause I'm wasted and I'm never gonna feel again
And I've torn down and laid to waste everything in between us
Yeah
Wasted and I'm never gonna feel again
And I've tore down and laid to waste everything in between us
Yeah
Wasted and I'm never gonna feel again, no
And I've tore down and laid waste everything that I am
But you would never understand
Wasted and I'm never gonna feel again
No
Well I'm wasted, yea
Well I'm wasted and I'm never gonna feel again
Yes I'm wasted and I'm never gonna feel again
