

Steve Forbert, Schoolgirl

School girl won't you talk to me,
Show a little hospitality,
I'm a lonesome stranger in your college town baby,
School girl won't you walk me round

School girl with your fancy looks ,
Hey baby let me tote your books,
Won't you try a little love you can't go wrong , darlin',
School girl let me walk you home,

Its a hey , hey ,
Hey yes and the sun is sinking down its a going away
Its a hey hey
Every nighttime is the right time to say ok

School girl let me help you please,
Have you studied bout the birds and the bees?,
You can write a little paper on the rites of spring , baby
School girl sha la la le#

And the sun is sinking down and its going away
Hey hey,
Yes and the night time is the right time to say ok
Ground me..

School girl tell me what you say
Hey baby don't you turn away
Stop thinking don't you want a romance,
School girl give me half a chance

Its a hey , hey ,
Hey yes and the sun is sinking down its a going away
Its a hey hey
Every nighttime is the right time to say ok

School girl give me half a chance.
