

Steve Forbert, When The Sun Shines

(Steve capos up 2 or 3 frets)

Intro: Em C D

Em C D

D C G D
Down comes the pounding rain, and dark are the skies up above me

Em C D
But you'll be mine when the sun shines

C G D
Racing to catch late trains, and waiting while crowds push and shove me

Em C D
But you'll be mine when the sun shines

A G D A
When the sun shines and I see your face

G Bm E
All my long nights will melt into space

D C G D
Nobody speaks my name soft like it sounds when you love me

Em C D
But you'll be mine when the sun shines

A G D A
When the sun shines and I see your face

G Bm E
All my long nights will melt into space

D C
And that's when I won't look back

G D
And I won't sing a thing about sorrow

Em C D
Cause you'll be mine when the sun shines

C G D
Train on a countdown track still a few miles from tomorrow

Em C D
But you'll be mine when the sun shines

Em C D
And you'll be mine when the sun shines
