

Steve Hackett, Let Me Count The Ways

Let me count the ways I love you babe
You don't know what you do
I'm a mess without your love baby blue

You were the only one I ever loved
You know I owe you every time
You were the first one to believe in me
And that's before I had a dime
I'm a mess without your love baby blue

As I walk by along the waterfront
With all my clothes soaked wet through
Let me count the ways I love you babe
I'm a mess without your love baby blue
