

Steve Hillage, 1988 Aktivator

You got me cooped up in a corner and I'm branded as a good boy you ain't listening to what I say
When all around you see the rushing in of power that's a-brought the New Age
Super-unidentified we're gonna smash the images and barriers between us and the Here and Now
You know the trigger of the Love Gun has been pulled and it's already too late to begin to escape,

1988 Aktivator

We're gonna open to the 1988 Aktivator
Ain't no hiding from the 1988 Aktivator
Leaping up and down
Aktivator, Aktivator, Aktivator

Reality reality it's held together by you and me
We're gonna use our beams of power to change the programme of our inner television
It's time for Telelove to give the world a shove
'cos there ain't never any use in trying to run away
We're gonna have some fun the Golden Vibe is gonna come
You're feeling good because the labelless love has started leaping out of your eyes

1988 Aktivator

Gonna wake up to the 1988 Aktivator
Leaving your body now
Aktivator, Aktivator, Aktivator.

1988 Aktivator
