

Steve Perry, Anyway

(Perry, Miner)

Still I remember
I'd like to say I'm sorry
I'd like to make amends
I'd close my eyes and tell the truth
But where would I begin
My story's far from simple
I'm so afraid to show
I never want to run again
I wanna let you know

Anyway, what was I saying
Anyway, I seem to have lost my place again
Anyway, somehow I need just to forget
But I can't do it, oh I try, anyway

We believed in music
Brothers to the end
Nothing stood between us
A fire burned within
Oh how I remember
Wounded, but alive
Lost in my insanity
Escaping to survive

Anyway, what was I saying
Anyway, I seem to have lost my place again
Anyway, oh how I need just to forget
But can't do it
Oh, I try, still I can't do it
Oh, I try, oh I try, anyway

Still I remember
Still I remember
Haunting me, calling me, still I remember
No, no, no, no
