

Steve Perry, Somewhere There's Hope

(Perry, Taylor, Brewster, Lucas)

When you're runnin' baby
You can't let go
Life's on the line
When you're runnin', runnin', runnin'
From a cold, cold world
Voices, they cry

Somewhere there's hope (somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (somebody please)
Somewhere there's hope, waitin' there, waitin' there

Ooh, the wheels of fear
Turn truth into lies
Like a thief in the night
Hold on through the smoke
And through the fire
No one can hide

'Cause somewhere there's hope (somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (somebody please)
Somewhere there's hope, waitin' there, waitin' there
Somewhere there's hope (somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (somebody please)
Waitin' there, waitin' there

Somewhere there's hope (somewhere there's hope)
Somebody please (somebody please)
Somewhere there's hope, waitin' there, waitin' there

They cry, voices, they cry
Somewhere there's hope, somebody please
