

Steve Perry, What Was

(Perry, Goodrum)

What was I to do
You never should have called me up
What was I to do
Haven't we both had enough
I still think of you
Even though we're miles apart
What was I to do

The fire's still there
My heart is still scared
To fall again
It's a little too late because
We'll never change what was

There you go again
Girl, it's never gonna end
Someday we can't have
We must let go
I want so much to say
I love you more today
The hardest thing I ever had to say
Goodbye

What was I to do
You never should have called me up
What was I to do
Haven't we both had enough
