Steve Wariner, Small Town Girl

Cold city like the eyes in the subway station It's ten stories to my desk in the smoggy sky But after five, I'm headed home to heaven to an easy world There ain't nothin like the love of a small town girl.

Hot coffee and the sound of her sweet voice callin' Country station on the kitchen radio That's how I know theres still a little magic in this crazy world There ain't nothin like the love of a small town girl.

She makes love to me In real close two part harmony She makes the city feel Like walks in the cool country rain.

No traffic and the sound of the street is quiet Fifth avenue is dressed in a foot of snow No where to go but underneath the covers Lovers while the snowflakes swirl There ain't nothin like the love of a small town girl.

There ain't nothin like the love of a small town girl...
